

Documented Essay Quiz

LATEST SUBMISSION GRADE

100%

1. True or False?

1 / 1 point

A documented essay can be written without using any sources.

☐ True

☒ False

 Correct
2. True or False?

1 / 1 point

A Works Cited entry usually starts with an author's last name.

☒ True

☐ False

 Correct
3. True or False?

1 / 1 point

A parenthetical in-text citation should always use the author's last name.

☐ True

☒ False

 Correct

If there is no author's name given, the citation would use the first couple of words of the title.
4. True or False?

1 / 1 point

A documented essay is usually an illustration or an argument essay.

☒ True

☐ False

 Correct

It usually shows something important or argues a point.
5. True or False?

1 / 1 point

Sources are used in documented essays to make or introduce important points in the essay.

☐ True

☒ False

 Correct

Sources are used to support the writer's points.
6. True or False?

1 / 1 point

Academic essays should have only 5 paragraphs.

☐ True

☒ False

 Correct

You should have more than 5 paragraphs.
7. True or False?

1 / 1 point

You should use a variety of types of body paragraphs in a documented essay.

☒ True

☐ False

 Correct

This is how you make it longer and more academic.
8. How do you integrate a quote well?

1 / 1 point

☒ Use only the important part of the quote and blend it with my own words.

☐ Use several important sentences of a source.

☐ Introduce it with a phrase, such as "Smith says," and then use only the important part of the quote.

 Correct

Activate Windows

Activate Windows

Activate Windows

Activate Windows