

Practice Quiz

TOTAL POINTS 3

1. To avoid plagiarism, which of the following should you do? Check all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☐ Change a bunch of the words in the source so that the ideas look like my ideas.

☒ Put quotation marks around words that I copy exactly from the source.

Correct

Remember that anything longer than 3 exact words must have quotes around it.

☐ Put quotation marks around my own words.

☒ Cite the source either in an attribution or in parentheses at the end of the sentence.

Correct

Remember that attribution is saying the author's name in your sentence. For example, "Max Johnson indicates that..."

2. True or False?

1 / 1 point

It's ok to borrow some ideas from an outside source without citing it as long as you don't copy the exact words in your own essay.

☐ True

☒ False

Correct

It's never ok to use a source without citing it.

3. Which citation format are you learning to use in this course?

1 / 1 point
