

Sentence Variety Practice

Directions: The sentences below all begin with the subject of the sentence. Practice creating variety by changing the sentence beginnings, but don't change the meaning of the sentence. When you see a key, click to compare your answer.

Ex. James ate a hamburger in a hurry.

Possible Answer: In a hurry, James ate a hamburger.

5. The news program will have the results of the close presidential election in the morning.

In the morning, the news program will have the results of the close presidential election.

6. The Lakers lost the game due to two of their players fouling out in the fourth quarter.

Due to two of their players fouling out in the fourth quarter, the Lakers lost the game.

7. Everyone danced and had a good time at the new club on New Year's Eve.

On New Year's Eve, everyone danced and had a good time at the new club.

8. He studied tirelessly for his history exam and was happy to make an A on it.

Tirelessly, he studied for his history exam and was happy to make an A on it.

