PROMPT

In this discussion, you have a choice. You can:

1) ask at least one question you have about writing

cause/effect essays

OR

2) give an example of a topic that you might study in college that would be good to write a cause/effect essay on. This can be for a general education course or a course in your major. Be sure to tell us which class it is for.

What is the minimum number of words to be written in cause/effect essays?

OVERALL ASSIGNMENT RUBRIC

If your peer asked a question, answer the question(s). If your peer suggested a college topic for a cause/effect essay, respond to the idea. Is it a good topic for a cause/effect essay? Would there be enough material to write about in the body paragraphs?

Shuvankar Biswas

I think minimum 300 words preferable for cause/effect essays.

GLADSON VINOD CHERIAN

around 150-200 words
