

Sentence Variety Practice

Directions: The sentences below all begin with the subject of the sentence. Practice creating variety by changing the sentence beginnings, but don't change the meaning of the sentence. When you see a key, click to compare your answer.

Ex. James ate a hamburger in a hurry.

Possible Answer: In a hurry, James ate a hamburger.

1. The reporter asked another question with frustration.

With frustration, the reporter asked another question.

2. Freddy threw his book across the room because he didn't understand the chapter on genetics.

Because Freddy didn't understand the chapter on genetics, he threw his book across the room.

3. Alice waited patiently for her daughter to put her shoes on.

Patiently, Alice waited for her daughter to put her shoes on.

4. The virus spread to a lot of people, including children, after the sick patient flew on an airplane.

After the sick patient flew on an airplane, the virus spread to a lot of people

Next Set of Sentences

